the SoldierByte is a Divorced 60 year old man - Retired Army Ranger seeks his G.I.Jane..

I am a retired Army Ranger (service over 21 years on active duty, and 7 years contract for DoD), currently living in North Eastern Oklahoma. I am Divorced (5-X) and have 3 step-daughters now grown and 1 biological daughter now grown. I live alone and my hobbies are dancing, camping (remote) repelling, parachuting (although have not jumped in 2 years). I monkey around on the computer and some say I am quite adept in digital security. I manage a number (3) of MNS sites, own , program, develop, and design two of my own domains, and am web-master and chief programmer on a couple government sites. I' m just finishing a project for the goverment involving the use of mir and voice activation in patrol cars and military attack veichles (so the operators can concentrate on driving and not monkey with switches, controls, radio, lites , weapons, etc. in high sped pursuits and such). The voice activation coding will be out shortly, and will be shared same as GPS systems. (and NO, do NOT even ask for mir, irs, or anything pertaining to those systems) I was instrumental in security encryption with miltary GPS before it was utilized by the general public. My name is listed in the secured manuals, and I still assist when needed. Not much of a party guy, tend to stay away from people and prefer the computer to most humans. Looking for a female I can trust and share life together. Must be her own person, have some brains, loyal, honest, and able/willing to put up with the idiosyncrasies of a Viet Nam (combat) veteran. My top three movies are "The Big Chill", "Stand by Me", and "Ghost". My music is classic rock (I'd rather spend a nite in jail then be forced to endure Rap, Hip Hop, or C. & W.!!) with my all time favorite groups being "The Rolling Stones" and "The Four Seasons". My three all time songs are "Unchained Melody", "Stand By Me", and "Bad Girls". my tastes run to assertive/aggressive women. I have not dated but twice in the last five years (mainly my choice, to lazy to go out!), I am disease free, and in good health. Although I do not consider myself anything special to look at, I do not scare small children. Am a one woman man, and same I expect. (Although I am retired, I continue to "do" as an excuse to get up in the morning.) Cannot thing of much more to add at this time, any questions, feel free to contact me. Photos are recent and more available upon request. Take Care & Stay Safe.||-SoldierByte-||
