- Am really sorry about what you are telling me now. I never knew anyone by that name Lesley James Smith. But i understand you very well now, and i know why you are angry with me now. When i got your message, i was very angry, and i went to meet my pastor, and i told him about it, he urge me to pray about it and forget about it, so i did. Today i was with some of my church cell members when i just told them about what happen, i decided to show them your profile, and the message you sent to me, it was my surprise to see that the name David is one of my church members, but he lives in Kumasi, which is 3hrs drive away from Accra. so he only comes to Accra once in a while to meet his Uncle. I use to know him, he is a small boy, there was a day he came to me in the church that one of her Aunt wants to send her money from the USA, that he needed someone who has a National ID to Receive the money for him, then i gave him my name, and that was all, he never told me that they sent money or not, and since then i have not seen him. Please believe me, am a christian, i don't take money that does not belong to me, and like i said, they money he said was going to be sent, was never sent, and i did not receive any money for him. I am not connected to fraud, and i don't have anything to do with such things, please who ever you have reported me to, please tell them am not involved, am innocent of this offense, i never the boy was a scammer, i wouldn't have give him my ID. Thank God you also know his real name: David Banaye(AKA) Lesley James Smith.... this is the name of the person who scam you. If you had not given me his name, i wouldn't have been able to know were the problem was coming from. If there is any other investigation you need to do use that name :David Banaye. He is black and a little bit taller than myself, but am older than him. On the other hand, he is not the only guilty one here, you are his accomplice, why should you allow yourself to be deceived by someone who you know little or nothing about. this is not good at all. The Bible says we should be as wise as a serpent. Well sorry, that my name is involve in this, i was not aware of this incidence, think about it, i gave you all my info yesterday, if i was really involve i will not do that, please i beg you in the name of God to remove my name from any site you have pasted my name. I will be here to Help you if you need my help, i gave you my cell phone number already, you can give me a call if you like. In other to help you, am ready to do whatever you want to get this boy, but i know if you wanted to do it your own way, you can never get him, i was told he is not on facebook and he is a secondary school student. well get back to me soon, i like to be your friend, lets share Gods love together, i will like to let you know that God Loves you. Bye.
