Jeff Spranger

Jeff Spranger serves as the Treasurer & Controller for Onepath Systems, LLC, and carries over 14 years experience of Accounting Management experience within the construction related industry.

Jeff graduated from Seattle, Washington's St. Anne's Catholic Prep School in 1986 and promptly joined the U.S. Army. After serving in the Army's elite 3rd Ranger Battalion for 3 years, he was able to join the Criminal Investigations Division (CID) of the Department of Defense in 1989. It was there that he discovered his love for business while working in the Economic Crimes Investigations. After serving in Operation Desert Shield / Storm, Jeff left the CID in 1991 to accept a job with Walmart Corporation where he was employed to help improve store controls and company-wide processes and procedures.

In 1993 Jeff left Walmart to begin working for Multi-Family Services, a General Contractor in the Atlanta, GA area. Hired as an Asst. Controller he had the privilege of working under a former Construction CFO of over 30 years as well as the company's Executive experience of over 40 years. Jeff assumed the position of Controller in 1996 when the former Controller retired.

In 1998 Jeff made the decision to leave his former employer to join David Fichtner as a partner in his business, Suntech Systems. At his time of joining, the company was doing $2M in annual revenue at 1% NBT. Working with the Executive team of David Fichtner, Chris Atwell & Robb Borden, they were able to grow revenue to over $20M and increase NBT to over 15%.

Jeff holds an Associate Degree in Criminology from Troy State University and a Bachelors of Science in Accounting from Kennesaw State University. Through his education and experience he has come to firmly believe that treating employees and customers with integrity and honesty are fundamental requirements for both business and personal success. Jeff currently attends Westminster Presbyterian Church, is an active member of "Meals on Wheels", and is an active tennis player for both ALTA and USTA.
